

Ernie Sullivan Added to Executive Leadership Council

Ernie Sullivan will be officially inducted at the Executive Leadership Council winter meeting held in Phoenix. Sullivan Becomes Member of the Executive Leadership Council.

Ernest L. Sullivan, Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Bank One Corporation, was appointed to the nation's Executive Leadership Council recently. The Council is composed of the top 300 African American leaders in corporate America. Nationally recognized members include Ken Chenault of American Express, Stan O'Neal of Merrill Lynch, and Richard Parsons of AOL/Time Warner.

The Executive Leadership Council focuses on senior management leadership development, mentoring programs for high potential African Americans, scholarship programs, and strategic diversity forums with Fortune 500 CEO's.

Sullivan will be officially inducted at the organization's winter meeting held in Phoenix, Arizona the first week in February.

Sullivan continues to reside in Columbus and is responsible for all recruiting activities for Bank One Corporation nationally. He serves on the COTA board, St. Stephen's Community House board, the Governor's Workforce Policy board, Leadership Columbus board, the Central State University Business Advisory board, and Chair of the Boy Scouts Urban Scouting Program.

Ernest L. Sullivan, Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Bank One Corporation.